The U.S. Department of Agriculture has evidence that on or about April 12, 2013, you or your organization committed violations of the following sections of the Code of Federal Regulations, Title 9:

3.61(e) Primary Enclosures Used To Transport Live Rabbits....DIRECT... failure to transport rabbits in primary enclosures that contained a sufficient quantity of litter to absorb and cover excreta

3.87(a)(10) Primary Enclosures Used To Transport Nonhuman Primates....DIRECT... failure to transport a nonhuman primate in a primary enclosure that contained enough litter to absorb and cover excreta

The Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service (APHIS) created federal regulations to ensure the welfare of animals and help prevent the spread of animal and plant pests and diseases. Since violations of the regulations can have serious and costly impacts that are detrimental to the public interest, APHIS is providing you with an Official Warning for the violation(s) described above. Any further violation of these federal regulations may result in the assessment of a civil penalty, criminal prosecution, or other sanctions. If you have any questions concerning this Official Warning or violation(s), please contact the APHIS official listed in this notice.
